Harry Potter ハリー・ポッター

Professor McGonagall Minerva

Professor, deputy headmistress, and head of Gryrrindor house. McGonagall is a tall, sever-looking woman who is strict and clever..

I like her better in the books than the movie.

Hagrid Rubeus

Keeper of Keys and Grounds at Hogwarts. He is a soft-hearted giant of a man. Hagrid is especially fond ofLarge, rather dangerous animals. Teaches Care of Magical Creatures.

I actually drew Sirius instead of Hagrid...

ハーマイオニー・グレンジャー Hermione Granger

Her parents are Muggles (non magic people), therefore, she is muggle-borned. Hermione is the best student at Hogwarts. She is best known as Miss know-it-all or the book-worm. Courageous and kind-hearted, Hermione is also a member of the "Wonder Trio" along with Harry and Ron.

ハリー・ポッター Harry Potter

He has black hair and green eyes, he wears round glasses, and his most distinguish feature is his lightning-bolt-shaped scar. An absolutely wonderfully cute wizard-in-training who captivates all the characters. He "Likes" his friend, Ron (!?)

Hedwig

Scabbers

ロン・ウィーズリー Ron Weasley

A close friend of Harry's. A tall red head. The youngest son of the Weasley's. 2nd youngest out of his other six siblings. From the first time he met Harry, he has been entranced.

■ RONPA'S VOICE ■

Hello, I'm Ronru Pearl. First timers and frequent readers, I humbly thank all of you for picking this doujinshi up (^-^) It's Harry Potter, peoples, come on!! I absolutely have no idea how it came about for me to end up selling a doujin, but I really got obsessed... completely. I went to the bookstore one day looking for something to read and saw Harry Potter. The 3rd book was just released at the time and there were mountains of books stacked all over. Being all so curious, I took a look at one of them. That immediately caught my interest, so instead of just buying the first book, I ended up buying the next 2 books also. I spent the whole summer convention reading. I was reading CoS while outlining my own story and began reading PoA while I was doodling. I had no thoughts about selling any Harry Potter stories and didn't even feel too much interest in the coupling of the hour...until destiny rang my bell. I saw the movie commercial. Hogwarts was breathtaking! Wasn't it just great, people! It just tackled my fantasies! Harry was just perfect! It was breath taking for me throughout the whole movie. I then realize how cute Ron and the mouse are, I was also shaken by Hermione's performance. Even though I got bewitched by the Harry Potter, I didn't subscribe to any Doujin's. But right now, I couldn't believe that I was actually contemplating selling one myself.

I have no idea if I will continue on with the doujin or just leave it with one book. All in all, here's the first book. It was a sudden decision so the book was finished in a hurry. I think I could have done a better job with it and I know it's not the best book to have been written, but please enjoy reading it as much as I enjoyed composing it.

HEY HARRY!
WHOA, SOUNDS LIKE FUN.
Ron's still depressed because he didn't see Harry during summer, so he decides to take a picture of him.

in the future

This book has two concepts the first is Ron x Harry while the second is Harry x Ron. The first coupling in Harry Potter that ever cross my mind was a Harry x Ron coupling^^ From the start, I have never had any interest in kids under 15, which is way out of my range of interest! I always though it would be more interesting when they grew up a bit then they are in the books and so I imagined what Harry and his friends would look like when they grew up. And that's where this illustration originates~ Harry has suffered much from his childhood, but he survived a lot with his strong mind and an unfaltering personality. He also seems to be a rather prudent sort. So maybe when he grows up he might become a "devilish guy"? (My personal hope/desire)

Oh well, I'll just keep on dreaming. But when you compare him with Ron, the grown up Harry will probably be an extremely charming "man" (Or am I just making him my type?) During his childhood, Harry wasn't able to experience much in the ways of the magical world. He will become more and more curious with everything around him. But when Harry passes his coming age of 16, he will then mature suddenly! And will soon notice his best friend Ron who as usual is occupied with mischief, candies and Quidditch. Would you be able to keep your hands off of such 'beauty'? (Not me! That would be impossible!)

Now that Harry has matured to be slightly dark (my personal request here) he would pretend to be the same innocent kid in front of Ron ever since they met. Harry would also secretly drive away any pests that would try to get close to Ron with his poison breath (laugh). Of course, his hidden magic would eventually become number one in the magical world. Harry would continue to fight for the good side for Ron, but in the shadows, he would become the Lord of the magic world. Heehee, delusions are exploding all around me. Anyway during their childhood the coupling would be "Ron x Harry" but once they became adults it would become "Harry x Ron" ("Dominant x Submissive")

■ RONPA'S VOICE ■

It was a very short book but how did you like it? This has been a very enjoyable experience for me and I found myself to be thinking about the next book that I will make. At the beginning of the last page, I got side tracked because I was in the midst of reading book 3. Even though I skimmed through the book, I was very impressed. I was having a headache when I read the passage dealing with Scabbers and Ron. And once again, Ron enchanted me. Living his happy go lucky life, Ron is very charming. I can't help but hope that his love will be realized! (Delusions) Good luck! Ron Weasley!! But in the future please be 'eaten' by Harry!

The"Hogwarts School" uniforms are very popular and a lot of people are knitting mufflers. It'd be weird wearing the robes, but sweaters and ties are OK. I want to wear it too~ But what I really want is a "chocolate frog" because cards come with it. I want to see the Dumbledore card~~. Wahhhhh~~~~!! Of course, the real thing is not a hologram (laugh).

Again I extend my thanks to Ishizuu and Watanabe-san who came and helped me during my troubles with this story. (^-^)/ Using this opportunity, please take a moment to read all the books and then write your own Harry Potter story for starving fans like me! Please help me once again in my troubles. Lastly, thanks to all the readers who have taken up this book and are reading it! I look forward to seeing you when I publish my next book! Bye-bye! (^-^)/
